"A Child of Fortune" to Be Seen at the Casino.

Bernhardt in "Leah" at the Metrofolitan Opera-House.

Carl Milicecke's new comic opera, "Das Sonntagskind," under the title of "Child of Fortune," will have its first metropolitan production Monday night at the Casino. The opera is in three scenes, which will be of the usual elaborate Casino style. The action takes place in Socitand, and this will afford opportunities for some very odd costumes. The opera will be interpreted by Lily Post, Annie Meyers, Jennie Relifarth, Ciara Coudray, Niaa Farrington, Charles Sassett, William Production of this famous German play. Annie Meyers, Jennie Relifarth, Ciara Conogh and Jefferson de Angelis, who will be the "child of fortune."

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt will appear for the mrst time in this city Tuesday night at the Metropolitan opera-House in "Leah." The French version of this famous German play. Pauline Blanchard. Bernhardt will repeat "Leah" Wednesday night. Thursday night as the will be breathed with mechindrest, "Aerous her blanch of the busilet of the Casino, Branhardt is said to pretastion will be watched with mechindrest, "Aerous her bloome," a war drama by Edward M. Conyers, Harry Hynes, Henrietta Lander, Helen Tracy, Charlotte Tillett, Grace Gayler, Alice Fisher, Cecil Wallace and May Winter.

"Polly Middles," a comic opera founded upon a libretto by Archibald Cavering Gunter, author of "Mr. Barnes of New York," will be sung at the Fourteenth Street Theatre Monday night, with Miss Annie Pixiey as the star. The music of "Polly Middles" has been composed by W. W. Lowitz, and Sig. Tomasi will direct the chorus. In the company will be William P. Guiberom, George C. Bonitace, Charles J. Campbell, Charles Allison, Alf. C. Wheelan, Miss Golanlie Wallace, Miss Rosa Cook, Miss Mamie Carey and Miss May Levinge.

"Husband and Wife" will have its first American performance to-night at the Gar-

"Husband and Wife" will have its first American performance to-night at the Garden, and it will remain at this house for several weeks. Miss Cora Tanuer will be the star of the company, which has has been very carefully selected by Manager's T. Henry French and William K. Sinn. The play will be produced under the direction of Richard Barker. "Husband and Wile" will be preceeded by a one-act play entitled "Hearts."

At Tony Pastor's Theatre next week the attractions will be Harry Kernell, Lydia Yeamans, Adams, Casey and Howard, Capitola Forrest, Nelly Maguire, the "coster girt;" Imra Fox, the conjurer; Josie Gregory, Griffin and Marks, George E. Austin; Robert Winstanley and Joe West in a "musical and dancing comedy act," and Kurtz, the juggler, William H. Crane will play "The American Minister" until the end of his engagement at the Star Theatre next month. The play has proved entertaining, and the subject, which is not often deait with on the stage, seems to interest the public. The third act is exceedingly good, and it always appeals very strongly to the audience.

Frederick Paulding will appear in "The Struggle of Life" at the Windsor Theatre Monday. He will be supported by Adelaice Fitz-Allen, Clara Baker Rust, Lillie Sinclair, Edwin Varrey, Guy Lindsley, Eliis Ryss. Frank M. Kendrick, Waiter Stuart, Master Charles Thropp, William Bentley, R. E. Vance and Thomas Maguire.

Miss Fanny Rice will present her farce, "A Jolly Surprise," at the Bijou Theatre next week. The piece has already been seen at the Harlem Opera-House. Miss Rice will have a good company, including John W. Ransome, Mrs. Sol Smith, Miss Evn Turner, Miss Chamberiain, Charles Bradshaw and Lawior and Thornton.

"McCarthy's Mishaps," An athlette farce-comedy, will be played at H. R. Jacobs Theatre next week. The company will be particularly good. Among the people announced to appear are Barney Ferguson, "Billie" Carroll. George Cruuop, Charles Stanly, James Callahan, George citaes, Gertude Fort, Carrie Behr and Bertha Westbrook.

"Jimmy" Powers—nobody would think of calling him James T. Powers—will begin a week's engagement at the Grand Opera-House Monday in "A Straight Tip." a farce-comedy that speaks very vociferously for itself. He will be supported by the same company that has before been seen in this city. To-morrow night P. S. Glimore and his band will give a concert.

"Spood," Barnard's play, will be continued at the Union Square Theatre during the coming week. The play has been altered, its third act being removed. It will certainly not suffer from this removal, for the third act was the worst. "Holly Tree Inn." which procedes "Spooks." is exceedingly i relly.

That very excellent larce, "Incog," remains at the Standard Theatre, but it is coming to the end of its New York run. The piece has made a success, as it certainly deserved to do, for it is bright, well written and thoroughly amusing. It is now preceded by a curtain-raiser called "Book III., Chap. L." in which Charles Dickson appears. There will be an entertainment at this house to-morrow night.

Charles T. Eliis, a German dialect comedian, will appear next week at the New Park Theatre in an "ampretentious comedy "by Harbert

"Reilly and the Four Hundred" will be revived at Harrigan's Theatre next week, and theatre-goers will undoubtedly be glad to hear this. Harrigan has never had so exuberant a success as "Reilly," and, although it has enjoyed a very long run in this city, it still has vitality. The "tough girl" and "Maggie Murphy's Home " are always welcome.

BUTTS AND HIS MORMON BRIDE

Romance of a Dashing Lieutenant and Two Wedding Ceremonies, INT ASSOCIATED PRESS. 1

Stoux Falls, S. Dak., April 16,-Lieut, E. L. Butts, of the Twenty-first Infantry, U. S. A., and Winifred Kimball, of Salt Lake, Utah, were married last evening. This ceremony was a mere matter of form, however, the couple having been married in this city the 7th of March. Miss Kimbali is the daughter of the late H

P. Kimball, who was a very prominent Mormon, and his family being firm believers in the Mormon religion, were not favorably disposed towards the military man. Hence the secret marriage.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria secret marriage. Found Unconscious on Bixth Avenue
